Karen Sarmir, LLMSW, is a Program Coordinator in the Education department at the Alzheimer's Association – Greater Michigan Chapter. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Sociology from the University of Dayton. Karen went on to pursue her Master of Social Work degree in Interpersonal Practice and Aging at the University of Michigan School of Social Work. She was a member of the Geriatric Scholars program and Sigma Phi Omega, the national academic honor and professional society in gerontology, while at the University of Michigan.

Karen has interned at the University of Michigan Turner Geriatric Clinic and began her professional career at the Alzheimer's Association as an intern, where she worked directly with individuals who have dementia in the two day programs. She has also worked with family caregivers in various capacities and enjoys educating and teaching skills to help caregivers cope more effectively with the challenges of the disease. Karen is also a trained support group facilitator and a trainer for the Creating Confident Caregivers program.
